

Official rules of the Nebraska Duck Slam

Hunters who harvest the four duck species that make up the Nebraska Duck Slam: American wigeon, mallard, Northern pintail and teal (blue-winged or green-winged) are eligible to receive a special Nebraska Duck Slam award. Hunters participating in the slam will also be automatically be eligible to win prizes, including Ducks Unlimited gear, memberships, and a grand prize drawing of a Special Edition Ducks Unlimited Franchi Elite 20GA shotgun.

Official rules

1. 2021-2022 program begins Sept. 4, 2021 and closes January 26, 2022.
2. Hunters can complete the slam once per hunting season.
3. All birds submitted for the Nebraska Duck Slam must be drakes and harvested in Nebraska.
4. Birds harvested prior to Sept. 4, 2021 are not eligible for inclusion toward a 2021-2022 Nebraska DuckSlam.
5. Both Nebraska residents and non-residents may participate in the slam.
6. All participating hunters must have a valid, current Nebraska Small Game Hunt permit, Habitat stamp, Nebraska waterfowl stamp, federal waterfowl stamp and HIP number at the time each bird is harvested and must follow all bag limits and any other regulations for the land upon which they are hunting.
7. Hunters do not need to pre-register to participate in pursuing the Nebraska Duck Slam.
8. Upon the first harvest of a bird as a part of the slam (or as desired) a hunter will need to visit OutdoorNebraska.gov/DuckSlam and create an account with a unique User ID and password. This User ID and password will be used for all subsequent entries in the Duck Slam.
9. In addition to accurate contact information, each submission of a harvested bird for a Duck Slam must include:
  - a. A valid e-mail address.
  - b. The date of harvest.
  - c. The county where the harvest took place. (For internal reference only.)
  - d. Whether the bird was harvested on public land or private land.
  - e. An uploaded photo of their harvested bird. Species harvested must be clearly identifiable (Once uploaded, these photos will become property of Nebraska Game and Parks (NGPC), and may be shared on social media or used to promote the Nebraska Duck Slam.)
10. As each subsequent new species is harvested, the hunter will log in to the Slam System and repeat the submission process. Agency staff will monitor all entries and may contact individuals as any questions arise.

11. Only one (1) bird of each duck species may be submitted as part of a Duck Slam at any given time.
12. Upon submission of a fourth and final duck species harvested, NGPC staff will check the records to verify submission of the four duck species.
13. Hunters who do not have access to do online submission of their harvests will need to contact the Wildlife Division of Nebraska Game and Parks at 402-471-5413 for information on how to submit their entries.
14. Upon verification of achievement of a Nebraska Duck Slam by agency staff, the hunter will be provided with:
  - a. A 2021-2022 certificate noting their achievement
  - b. A Nebraska Duck Slam pin
  - c. Eligibility for prize drawings
  - d. Addition of their name to the list of Duck Slam on the website
  - e. Opportunity for participant names, hunting stories and photos to be shared through Nebraska Game and Parks social media channels and other agency publications
