

Becoming an Outdoor Woman Program

Catching up with the Cranes

March 30, 2018 ■ Fort Kearny SRA

Every year the Sandhill cranes migrate through the bottleneck in central Nebraska on the way to their nesting grounds up north. Photography, local experts, waterfowl, wildlife, coffee, chili, and cranes all come together for an enjoyable day learning about these majestic birds. The Rainwater Basin and the North Platte River at Fort Kearny will be the viewing destinations to experience one of the largest migrations in the world.

Schedule:
6 a.m. – Morning viewing at Fort Kearny Recreation Bridge
9 a.m. – Viewing at Rowe Sanctuary
11 a.m. – Lunch and history of Fort Kearny State Historical Park
1 p.m. – Rainwater Basin tour
4 p.m. – Day ends

Location: Fort Kearny State Recreation Area
– South of Kearney

Fee: $15/person plus state park permit
PayPal or Check with registration form

Prerequisites: Must be 16 years or older.

To Bring:

- Warm clothing that isn't bright
- Cameras that have flash turned off
- Hiking boots (or other comfortable walking shoes)
- State park permit

✂ cut and mail

Crane Viewing Trip Registration Form:

NAME : _____

PHONE: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY: _____ STATE: _____ ZIP: _____

E-MAIL: _____

FOOD ALLERGIES: _____

Mail registration form and check to:
Nebraska Game and Parks Commission,
4703 N. 44th Street, Lincoln, NE 68504
call: Julia Plugge 402-471-6009
or e-mail: Julia.Plugge@nebraska.gov

Additional information will be sent to registered participants.

Registration form and fee are due by March 23, 2018.

Refunds will only be issued if event is cancelled.

Write checks to:
Nebraska Game and Parks Foundation

_____ participants X $15/ea. = $ _____

paid with PayPal